

Since Novice and Tech+ ticket holders now share the same minimum code speed as required for General through Extra class, I would be in favor of refarming these bands. This proposal makes the most sense for the 40 meter band, where QRM and over crowding are a nightly problem.